GENOVA, BURNS & GIANTOMASI CONGRATULATES REBECCA MOLL FREED ON “FORTY UNDER 40”

NEWARK, NJ (August 5, 2010) –Genova, Burns & Giantomasi is pleased to announce that firm Counsel Rebecca Moll Freed has been named one of NJ Biz Magazine’s 2010 “Forty Under 40”.

Rebecca Moll Freed, Esq. is a member of the firm’s Corporate Political Activity Law and Public Contract Law & Bid Protest Litigation Practice Groups. Ms. Freed’s practice includes representing clients on matters involving New Jersey’s pay-to-play laws as well as public procurement laws. She regularly advises corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, trade associations, charitable organizations, social welfare organizations and political action committees on such matters. Ms. Freed counsels both for- and not-for profit entities on corporate ethics and assists clients in the development and enforcement of political activity compliance policies.

Ms. Freed serves as the Board Counsel for the Women’s Political Caucus of New Jersey and is an active member of her local YMCA. She also serves as the Board of Education Liaison for her local Civic Association.

The award program is produced by NJBIZ Magazine and honors men and women under the age of 40 who have been making headlines in their field and who share a commitment to business growth, to professional excellence and to the community. The winners were chosen by an independent panel of judges including: Elizabeth Christopherson, The Rita Allen Foundation; John Farrell, Rider University and Neil Stanton, Consultedge.
