

Regulatory Update Site Remediation & Planning

June 23/Networking Breakfast 7:45 AM / Program begins 8:30 AM
The Pines Manor, Edison, NJ

Seminar Tuesday, June 23, 2009

NJ DEP Commissioner Mark Mauriello will discuss: priorities for 2010; how DEP is dealing with budget issues; implementation of the Permit Efficiency Review Task Force's recommendations; information management issues; sewer service area clipping; the role of the Science Advisory Board; and DEP's role in helping COAH achieve goals.

Panel 1: Planning Issues

Water Quality Management Planning, Global Warming Response Act, State Plan

Moderated by William Harrison, Genova, Burns & Vernoia

Panelists: Jeanne Herb and Larry Baier, DEP; Anthony DiLodovico, CMX; Dianne Brake, PlanSmart NJ; and a County Planner.

Panel 2: Site Remediation

Licensed Site Remediation Professional program implementation, public notification requirements.

Moderated by Dennis Toft, Wolff & Samson

Panelists: Len Romino, DEP; Andy Robins, Giordano Halleran & Ciesla; Jorge Berkowitz, Langan Engineering & Environmental Services.

Sponsorships available: Contact Bonnie Sovinee 732-729-9900.

NAIOP New Jersey thanks our sponsors:

GENOVA, BURNS & VERNOIA

June 23 Seminar: $75 per NAIOP member/employee of a corporate member firm, $95 per colleague employed by a NAIOP-NJ member's firm, $110 per non-member.

Name: _____ Member ID# _____

Company: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Phone: _____ E-Mail: _____

Pay by Credit Card ~ American Express, MasterCard or Visa Only

Card# _____ Exp. _____ Amt. to be Charged: $ _____

Cardholder: _____ Signature: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Mail form with payment to: NAIOP New Jersey, 317 George St., Suite 220, New Brunswick, NJ 08901 or Fax to 732-729-9901
If payment has not been received by event date, a credit card guarantee will be required onsite. No credit card charges will be processed if payment is received within 7 days of the event. Registrations cancelled fewer than 72 hours in advance of the event will be considered firm with payment due to NAIOP-NJ within 30 days. No refunds will be issued for paid registrations after the 72 hour cancellation deadline.